Voters okay new grade school

Building may open in fall of 1979

Antioch Grade School District 34 residents said "yes" last Saturday to a new grade school.

Voters approved a $1.6 million building bond issue by 138 votes.

The vote was 591-458. Eleven spoiled ballots brought the total number of voters to 1,060. About one-fifth of the registered voters went to the polls.

The precinct totals were: Antioch Lower Grade School 346-260, Oakland Grade School 212-131 and Channel Lake Grade School 33-67.

THE BOND ISSUE will bring $1.6 million for the local share of the more than $2.2 million total building costs.

For the next five years, the tax rate will increase to approximately .62 cents per $100 assessed valuation. The average rate will decrease in 1989 to approximately 50 cents per $100 assessed valuation. The current rate is 41.4 cents.

THE STATE Capital Development Board will now choose an architect for the new building and the expansion of Oakland school.

School officials are hoping for bids to be opened by next January with building to start in late winter or early spring of next year, 1978. The tentative school opening date is September, 1979.

ANTIOCH HIGH SCHOOL seniors Jamie Grunewald and John Kakacek were presented with many awards at the annual honors program last Thursday. They are pictured here with

Boating, hunting hearings

Possible boating restrictions for the confluence of Pistakee Bay, Grass and Fox Lake in the Chain O'Lakes will be discussed at a public hearing at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, May 26. The hearing will be held at the Department of Conservation's Region II Headquarters, 110 James Rd., Spring Grove.

Any person may testify in writing or orally regarding proposed speed restrictions in that area that would eliminate water skiing.

Tighter boating restrictions are being considered for that area because of its history of boating accidents due to the heavy congestion of boaters.

The department will conduct a hearing at 7 p.m. tonight (Wednesday) to discuss proposed changes in waterfowl hunting regulations at the Grass Lake Waterfowl Management Area. Location is the same.

Special District 34 meeting

A special meeting of the Antioch Grade School District 34 school board has been set for 8 p.m., Tuesday, May 31 at the Upper Grade School. Heading the agenda is review of the district program plan.

The next regular meeting of the board is at 8 p.m., Tuesday, June 7 at Oakland School.

"DOWN BY THE OLD MILL STREAM"--Soon Antioch residents will be able to sing that song in a new way because the Sequoit Creek mill pond construction started last weekend. Angelo DiPaolo Construction of Niles is donating part of their time on the project. The Hiram Buttrick sawmill reconstruction site is on Turner Drive, near the village garage.

Jack Fields, 16, wins award at Waukegan

Jack Fields, 16, of Antioch was the recipient of the "swimmer of the year" award at the annual Waukegan YMCA swim team banquet and awards night. Jack, who swims for the Waukegan team in the winter, is a member of the Antioch summer swim team.

The "swimmer of the year" award is given to one boy and one girl for their loyalty, good sportsmanship and leadership to the team. Jack also won the award for attending the most swim team practices. He was most valuable swimmer in his age group, as voted by his fellow team members. The swim team is comprised of over 120 swimmers, age 6 through 18, from all over Lake County.

Jack received last summer's Antioch swim team award for "swimmer of the year."

Antioch police catch purse snatcher, 16

A 76-year-old Antioch woman was the victim of a purse-snatching last Wednesday near her Main St. residence.

She supplied police with a description that led to the arrest of a 16-year-old suspect by Sgt. Thomas Fisher and Officer Richard Good. The girl was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Kriss Brueggeman, 17, admitted to serving as lookout in the attempt and was taken to the Lake County jail on charges of attempted strong arm robbery and purse-snatching.

New grade school okayed by voters

DISTRICT 34 SUPERINTENDENT Henry Meyer said the school's contract with the CABL developers would give the schools 10 acres when the development (240 acres at North Ave. and Tiffany Rd.) begins. It is possible an earlier arrangement can be made for giving the property deed.

If the CABL property is not obtainable, the new school will be built on the southwest corner of the Upper Grade School property (east of Felter's Subdivision and north of Hy. 173).

RENOVATION AND ADDITION to Oakland would be health and life safety work, according to Meyer. The six portable classrooms now in use would be replaced. Plans call for a library learning center; small group instruction rooms; rooms for art, music and band instruction; and storage space.

CHANNEL LAKE GYMNASIUM and kitchen facilities would be used for extracurricular school activities and community use. The rest would be for district storage, making the original 1892 building at Main and Depot streets available for lease as a historical museum.

Meyer said, "On behalf of the administration and school board, I would like to thank the people for supporting the bond issue and also the precinct workers."

Total cost of the building program is estimated at about $2.2 million, with the state providing $625,000.

District voters defeated the same proposition two years ago.

Upper Grade School plans rocket launchings

For the fifth consecutive year, the school grounds at the Antioch Upper Grade School are going to be turned into a miniature Cape Canaveral.

Beginning Tuesday, May 31, and continuing through Thursday, June 2, model rockets will be leaving the launch pads at the rate of 80 to 100 per day.

The three days are the culmination of a flight unit in some of the science classes. The model rockets are built by the students of science teacher Paul Epner.

Some of the sophisticated models, involving two and three stages, reach heights of over one-half mile before returning by parachute.

Flight director is 8th grader Laura Stalley.

There are seven specific jobs. They are mission control, launch crew, safety team, recovery crew, spotter, data recorder and altitude trackers.

The students in mission control will keep spectators informed through a public address system.

"Everyone is invited to watch the rocket launches anytime between 8:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. Remember to bring lawn chairs," Mr. Epner said.

Census workers needed

Individuals interested in working as interviewers for the June 14 census in the village of Antioch should contact clerk Marilyn Sterbenz at the village hall, 874 Main St.

Those hired will be paid 13 cents for each properly recorded name in accordance with instructions furnished them. The average interviewer will be able to record 200 names per day, according to Stanley Moore, regional director of the U.S. Department of Commerce Bureau of the Census.

Letters

Copy of letter mailed to Representative Robert McClory, House Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20515.

Dear Congressman McClory:

In reference to the proposed gasoline tax increase, please let me say, "NO."

With driving 60 miles a day to work and back, it will place me in a position of not being able to afford the cost of work travel. Of course, as you are aware, Lake County does not receive any benefit from the RTA; and as such there isn't any type of public transportation to allow me to commute to work and home.

If there would be some way of not taxing gasoline needed for travel to and from work and only taxing the additional "pleasure" requirements, I would be in favor of the proposed increased tax, but only on requirements above necessary work consumption.

With all of the taxes currently in force, any additional taxes on work-related travel will make it very feasible for some to stay home and collect non-taxable unemployment compensation.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Edmund J. Paika, Jr.

RONALD REAGAN

The case for capital punishment

Ramsey Clark - one-time Attorney General, one-time U.S. Senate candidate, and all-time favorite of the Left - dropped in on the California State Senate to make this astonishing proposal:

All prison sentences, including those for first degree murder, should be limited to a maximum of five years!

Punishment itself was a crime, he said. Prisons aren't the answer. Instead, we must do away with poverty, lack of education and broken homes. Do that, and crime will evaporate, or so went his line.

RAMSEY CLARK'S COMMENTS touched a nerve with me, especially when he reminded the California lawmakers that he was speaking on the 10th anniversary of the last execution in the state. He asked, "Did that reduce the murder rate?"

I was Governor at the time of that last instance of capital punishment. Though I would have to say I don't think that one execution reduced the overall murder rate by a measurable degree, I know at least one Californian who has reason to believe that that particular execution prevented at least one murder - his own.

DURING THE WEEK of that execution, in 1967, an elderly storeowner in San Francisco was the victim of a robbery. The robber had him on the floor and raised a knife to stab the old man. The storekeeper struggled to avoid the knife and cried out, "You'll get the gas chamber if you do!" The robber's knife paused. He pulled it back, then ran from the store.

The intended victim later wrote to me. He said he was convinced that the great attention given the execution by the news media at the time had led to his own life being saved, for it triggered his warning to the knife-wielding robber.

Now that is one man's opinion and not statistical evidence, but there is strong evidence that capital punishment and murder are linked.

From 1930 till the mid 1950's, murder actually decreased in this country (from 10,500 in 1935 to fewer than 7,500 murders in 1955). In that period, capital punishment was in force in most states and there were several hundred executions each year.

EARLY IN THE 1960's the all-out campaign against capital punishment began and by 1964 there were only 15 executions. By 1968 they had stopped altogether.

Murderers were not paying with their lives any longer, but they were making more victims pay with theirs: 12,500 in 1968, 18,500 in 1972 and more than 20,500 in 1975 - a 200 percent increase in two decades! That kind of inflation society can't afford.

PROFESSOR ISAAC ERHLICH of the University of Chicago offers an interesting theory of the relationship between crime and punishment.

He says that most human acts - including crime - are based on an equation of costs-to-benefits. If the cost for doing murder is death and a criminal knows it, he may decide not to commit murder.

At least that shopkeeper in San Francisco thought so. So do I.

The Town Crier

THE WINNER of a recent beauty contest came right out and blasted the system by saying - in these days of women's liberation - she felt a bit of stigma being in a contest and being judged on "our bodies."

Shucks. I think she's lucky. I'd be flattered if somebody would ask me to be in a contest and judge me on my body.

So far, nobody has asked.

A FLORIDA NEWSPAPER is running a "Why I'd Leave My Man for Robert Redford Contest."

Local females are being asked, in 25 words or less, why Redford makes them melt.

You wouldn't leave your man for Robert Redford, would you? (I caught you there; you hesitated before you answered.)

He's in 'Who's Who,' I'm in 'Who's He?'

By JERRY PFARR

I just read in The New York Times that my old college roommate has been listed in "Who's Who."

"And what have you done lately?" asked the guy in the mirror while I was shaving this morning.

"Quit putting me down," I told him. "After all, my contributions to society are not entirely without merit."

I do a pretty fair imitation of Jimmy Cagney...my repertoire includes two better-than-average card tricks and three hilarious clean jokes...and by holding a cat upside-down I can tell whether it's male or female. Without me, a lot of parties would have gone right down the drain.

"WHO'S WHO" calls itself a faithful portrait of our times, so how come it's so short on guys who belong to bowling leagues and women with three kids and a headache?

I've decided to start my own book and I'm going to call it "Who's He?"

I'd like to invite you to be among those recognized in the first volume. Just jot down the things that make you the sweet, lovable person you are and enclose $20.

Wait. Make it $15. I'm not in this for a profit.

YOU MIGHT be interested in the kind of company you'll be in when your name is up there on the shelves of every library.

Well, right there on page 1 of "Who's He?" will be Aaron Aardvark, who invented the shoelace, thus assuring the world that small boys would return to their mothers periodically during picnics and other outings.

The book also will recognize the significant contribution to society of Irma Firm.

She practically eliminated from the American language such clout-less expressions as "Please don't..." "I wish you wouldn't..." "I'm sorry, but..." and "You'd better not..." when she coined the comment, "No way."

And how about I.M. Stuck, the hero of America's truck drivers? He came up with the bright idea of painting clearance heights, such as 12 ft. 7 in., on railroad trestles.

I think I'll dedicate "Who's He?" to that songwriter who wrote, "There's no knowing who you are going to meet in the pool. You may rub up against a rajah, or maybe your man will be a poor man. Everyone looks the same."

A newspaper dedicated to people marching to their own drummers.

Class of 1927 plans 50th reunion July 23

A second call is being given for all members of the Antioch "Township" High School class of 1927. Their graduation was first held in the then - new gymnasium in the 1926 addition. Before the days of caps and gowns, the 15 young men wore suits and the 10 girls wore dresses of rainbow colors.

THE REUNION organizing committee particularly wants to urge all those who started as freshmen in 1923, but transferred or did not finish with the class and all those who transferred into the class during its four years in high school, to join in this 50th year reunion.

The reunion will be held at 6:30 p.m., Saturday, July 23 at the Cabriolet in Libertyville. Dinner will be at 7:30 p.m.

Glenna Roberts Simpson, class president, would appreciate help in contacting members. Hilma Rosing Lightsey has been assisting in forwarding addresses to Mrs. Simpson at Rt. 1, Box 358, Mundelein, Ill., 60060. You may also call her at 312-566-1954.

THE CLASS of 1927 was a very ambitious class - only the 12th at ATHS. Athletics were strong with very good teams during those years. This class sponsored several special vaudevilles, in addition to participating in high school productions including plays and operettas such as the "Belle of Barcelona."

This class put out the first yearbook as juniors and gave the first Junior-Senior Prom, having had to petition the high school board and members of the various churches in town for approval.

Friday and Saturday are "Poppy Days"

Preparations for the annual observance of Poppy Days here and throughout the nation are nearing completion.

Mrs. Jack Horan, poppy chairman of Antioch unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, announced that Poppy Days will be observed on May 27 and 28, Friday & Saturday.

Mrs. Horan and Mrs. Ray Rathmann, president of the unit, voiced the hope that every citizen will wear a memorial poppy over his heart as a tribute to those who died to keep America free.

"A poppy over the heart shows that you remember and are grateful for the supreme sacrifice made by so many of America's finest men and women," Mrs. Horan said.

The poppies will be distributed by volunteers from the auxiliary who will be receiving contributions for their work for needy veterans and veterans' children.

Police arrest 2 for armed robbery

Two Chicago teenagers, 16 and 17, were arrested last Wednesday morning and charged with armed robbery of a service station at routes 173 and 83 in Antioch.

The pair had headed west on Rt. 173 and were taken into custody at a Lake Ave. gas station. Their car, described by two witnesses, had run out of fuel. A .22-caliber revolver was found in the coat of one of the youths.

Making the arrest were Deputy Sheriff Robert Schrader and Antioch Assistant Chief Charles Miller. Chief John Wells assisted in the arrest.

Under questioning by Wells and Miller, they admitted robbing a Glenview service station the night before.

The juvenile, who was on probation, was returned to the State Department of Corrections in St. Charles. The 17-year-old was taken to the Lake County jail on a charge of armed robbery.

A FORMER Antioch resident, Michael Mezzano, 19, was charged with auto theft Thursday and is now in the county jail.

He was arrested by Sgt. Thomas Fisher after investigation of a May 5 incident. The stolen vehicle, matching the description of one Mezzano, was said to be driving, was found in a rural Antioch area.

Investigation is continuing.

Virginia and Lars have no immediate plans, but hope to do some traveling and golfing in the near future.

PERSPECTIVES

Inspired brevity

By DONALD COLE

Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

The Bible is as remarkable for its omissions of potentially interesting material as for the episodes it does record. For example, virtually nothing is told about the life of Jesus before the age of 30. All we know is that when He was 12, He visited the temple in Jerusalem and amazed the teachers with His questions and answers. We would like to know more, but the Bible doesn't tell us more. Why not?

The answer may be that brevity is the soul of inspiration, and that the inspired writers recorded no more than was needed to meet their objectives. Take John. He tells us why he wrote the account commonly called the Gospel according to John: to persuade readers to believe that Jesus was the Christ. He explains that he selected his material carefully. He could have filled the libraries of the world with books about Jesus. But he exercised restraint, and recorded relatively few episodes and conversations, all designed to make the point John had in mind (cf. John 20:30-31).

John was by no means unique among the writers of the Bible. Matthew describes the baptism of Jesus in five short verses, and the transfiguration in only eight. Yet both episodes were supremely important. Christ's appearances to His disciples after the resurrection were, of course, crucial to the Gospel story. Yet Matthew records only two of the appearances, and the other evangelists are nearly as brief as is Matthew. Why?

We don't know. However, two observations can be made here: first, though brief, the accounts given are adequate for the evangelists' purposes. Matthew cited only two appearances, Mark only three, etc., but taken together, the information given is adequate. They constitute what Luke terms "many convincing proofs" of the reality of Christ's resurrection from the grave.

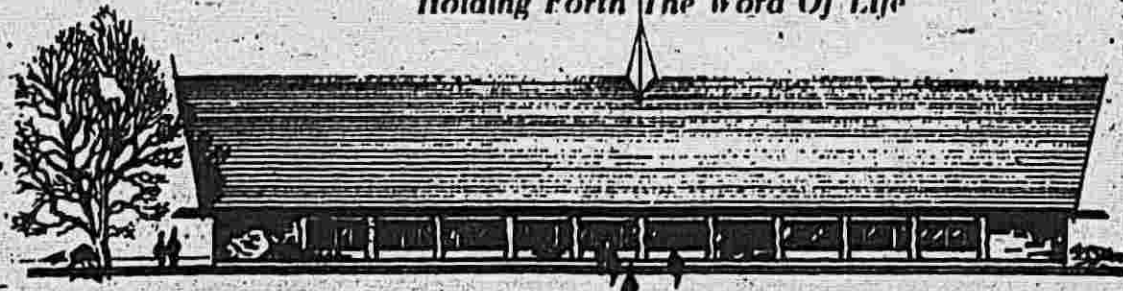

Second, the brevity is in itself evidence of the inspired nature of the Scriptures. No journalist or historian would have written with such brevity of the life of Jesus. One can imagine Sunday supplement accounts of the baptism, replete with descriptions of the crowds and interviews with bystanders, both critical and sympathetic. And, if uninspired men had heard of the transfiguration, they'd have badgered the men present for detailed accounts: "What did Moses and Elijah say? What did they really say? Their very words!"

The point is, the men whom God moved to write the Bible felt no need to satisfy curiosity. Every line they wrote made a solid contribution to their respective objectives, which varied with the works they produced. Luke, for example, wanted to set out in consecutive order events as they happened in the life of Jesus. Paul sent a letter to Timothy to remind him "how one ought to conduct himself in the household of God..." Neither writer had time for nonessential material. What God gave them to say they said—nothing more and nothing less. Their brevity is evidenced in support of the divine inspiration of the Scriptures.

Remembering Memorial Day

Traditional observances sometimes come and go without our considering the source.

I thought this would be a good time to discover the origin of Memorial Day, next Monday's holiday.

ONE OF THE FIRST recorded observances was in April 1866.

A group of women in Civil War-torn Columbus, Miss. decorated the graves of Confederate soldiers killed at Shiloh. They looked at the over 100 graves of Union soldiers, neglected because they were the enemy.

The women, upset by the sight of the bare graves, took some of the flowers and placed them on every Yankee's burial place. According to history, one of the women hoped, "That hatreds may cease" as she placed a flower.

SINCE THAT time, our country has suffered through two "wars to end all wars," countless attempts to "make the world safe for democracy" and years of fighting to bring a "lasting and honorable peace" in Vietnam.

The success rate has not been encouraging: the same is true throughout most of the world. It seems to me human effort never has and never will restore relationships between individuals, between nations, and between God and individuals or nations. The history books lead me to no other conclusion.

THAT MAKES the following excerpt from the New Testament letter of Ephesians all the more amazing:

"But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near in the blood of Christ. For He is our peace, who has made us both one, and has broken down the dividing wall of hostility, by abolishing in His flesh the law of commandments and ordinances, that He might create in Himself one new man in place of the two, so making peace, and might reconcile us both to God in one body through the cross, thereby bringing the hostility to an end," (chapter 2:13-16).

By going beyond a mere shuttle diplomacy between heaven and earth to giving His life in the line of duty, He gave the perfect blueprint for united nations.

Immunization levels unacceptably low

Last year hundreds of children in Lake County contracted communicable diseases which could have been prevented through proper immunizations. The cases of measles during recent weeks are evidence that immunization levels of children in Lake County remain unacceptably low.

The Lake County School Health Coordinating Council, co-chaired by William L. Thompson, regional superintendent of schools, and Dr. Steven R. Potsic, executive director, Lake County Health Department, has requested that all county schools remind parents of the necessity of reviewing their child's immunization records to make sure they have the necessary protection against childhood diseases.

Health department clinics scheduled in the next few months where free immunizations can be obtained include: St. Peter's School, Antioch; May 25, June 29, July 27, Aug. 17 and Sept. 28; 9 a.m. to 12 noon. No appointment is necessary.

Parents are urged to keep their child's immunizations current and have the child properly immunized before entering or returning to school in September.

If we don't restore phone service to your home within 12 hours, ask for a credit.

Chances are, your home telephone service will never fail you. But if it ever does, getting it fixed is as easy as calling Illinois Bell's Repair Service.

Just dial 611 in Chicago and most suburbs. (Elsewhere, the number is in the front pages of your phone book.)

We have over 5,000 repair people working for you, so you can normally expect prompt service. And there's no extra charge as long as the equipment is Bell's and the damage was not caused by abuse or neglect.

Occasionally, though, repair orders do get bunched up. So if you still can't make or receive calls at your home 12 hours after you've notified Repair Service, you can ask for a credit for the time you were without service.

Just call your Business Office at the number listed on your phone bill and in the phone directory. Your Service Representative will look into it for you and determine what credit is due, based on your monthly service charge. (For example, on a monthly charge of $12, a one-day refund would be 40¢.)

How to get credit for an out-of-service phone is one of the many money-saving facts and ideas you'll find in our new booklet, "Consumers' Guide: Home Telephone Service."

To get the most out of your phone service, send for a free copy.

Witch hunts subject of next PM&L production

"The Crucible," Arthur Miller's dramatization of the Massachusetts witch hunts of the 1690s, will open at the PM&L Theater in Antioch Saturday night, June 4.

The story is concerned with the religious mass hysteria which swept that New England colony at the end of the 17th century.

Hundreds of people, chiefly women, were put to death for the supposed crime of witchcraft.

The play centers on John Proctor (played by Bruce Berger in the PM&L production), his wife Elizabeth (Tricia Schaefer), and her accuser, Abigail Williams (Laura Krah).

The production is directed by Lou Jones, a PM&L veteran.

Others in the cast are Mark Kettner, Tom Hausman, Don Beveroth, Dawn Caddy, Debbie Blanksten, Jennifer Biel, Deane Jones, Frank Greenwood, Debbie Beno, Pam Hunley, Anne Marie Cina, Sid Groner, Ray Lewis, Richard Schram, George Blanksten, Earl Beese and Nancy Balmes.

After the opening performance on June 4, additional presentations of "The Crucible" are scheduled for Fridays and Saturdays, June 10, 11, 17, and 18.

Curtain time is 8:30 for all performances at the PM&L Theater, 877 Main St. in Antioch.

To make reservations you should call 395-3055.

Don't forget to pick up your reservations at the theater no later than 8:15 of the night you see the show.

The pot luck dinner May 14 at the Fun, Food and Friendship Senior Center was said to be a huge success with songs, music, audience participation and food, food and more food.

The Good News Singers, directed by L. R. Davis (heard on NBC, CBS and ABC stations), alternated with Emily Novotny on piano and Virginia Necker on drums for the entertainment. Between 70 and 80 people enjoyed the dinner.

The new officers who were present were introduced by the co-ordinator, Ida Wysoglad. Plans for the coming year met with members' approval.

The group meets at the Scout House.

Arts Fair tomorrow

The day of the second annual Antioch Upper Grade School Arts Fair is rapidly drawing near, tomorrow (Thursday) is the day; 7 to 9 p.m. is the time; AUGS gymnasium is the place.

The 110 students in the choral music department representing the beginning choir, intermediate choir and Apache Singers are putting the final touches on their music.

Alexis Spangler says the students are perfecting their original routines and the gymnastics exhibition will be quite exciting. Over 85 girls are involved, practicing twice weekly.

Cathy Goodwin is busy trying to coordinate the display of over 1,800 pieces of art in forms of drawing, painting, textiles, jewelry and sculpture. At least one project from each student in the school will be displayed.

Virgine Bowles and Lee Foust will also be displaying handiwork produced by the students in their classes, home economics and industrial arts.

held Monday, June 6.

Chairman LaVerne Woods has arranged to have a speaker from Dun and Bradstreet for the program.

Pamela Kant, an operations manager, will explain the role of Dun and Bradstreet ratings in business decisions.

"Regardless of the size of a business, its rating is a very real part of its identity in the business world. Collectively, the ratings on the businesses in a community reflect the overall business climate," she said.

The meeting will be held at Smart's Country House. Lunch will be served at 12:15 p.m. with the program following.

Luncheon reservations must be made by Wednesday, June 1. Guests are welcome.

MIKE GANTAR, legislative chairman, has a listing of new proposed laws that may be of major interest to Chamber members.

"These are not laws at this time, but if any businessmen are interested in seeing that they become law, they should contact their representatives to voice their concern," Gantar said.

Gantar said the following new bills have been introduced in Springfield:

1. Merchants who accept credit cards could offer a five percent discount to purchasers who pay with cash.
2. A proposed bill would make garnishments and wage deduction orders for the benefit of the creditors illegal.
3. A change in the minimum wage law would exclude employees of an employer of fewer than five full-time employees from coverage.
4. Under the unemployment insurance act, those persons voluntarily leaving work would be ineligible for benefits until 13 weeks (now eight weeks) after the first day of the first week for which he or she file a claim.
5. Employers may have to pay employees at least bi-weekly all wages earned during the bi-weekly pay period (now semi-monthly).

THE NEWEST MEMBER of the Chamber is Robert Lang of Lang's Fishing Center, Rt. 3, Box 185, Antioch.

Insulate this spring and save.

Spring is off-season for insulation contractors, so you can save now on installation costs. It makes good sense to insulate now, before the hot weather starts. Most people wait for the extremes of weather to remind them that they need to insulate. So springtime, with its milder weather, ends up being the best time to line up an insulation contractor. You'll have a better chance of getting the job done right away, and you'll probably also save on installation costs.

And go right on saving this summer.

Good insulation will lower your cooling costs. Your house needs adequate attic insulation, not only in the winter, but in the summer, too. That's because your air-conditioned house needs a barrier against the summer's heat just as much as it needs protection against the winter's cold.

How much money can insulation save you? Estimates of savings from home insulation range from 20 to 30 percent of yearly energy costs. Don't forget—savings will show up on both your heating and air-conditioning bills.

Investing in insulation pays off in more ways than one. Not only will you help conserve energy, but you will also increase the value of your home. That's one reason why many Savings and Loans and local banks are willing to help finance the cost of the job.

Commonwealth Edison has an attic insulation finance plan to help you. For details on insulation costs, call a qualified insulation contractor (consult the Yellow Pages or your local newspaper). If you're a single-family residence customer of ours and you install adequate attic insulation (R-19 or more is recommended), we'll finance the installation costs ourselves. (Keep in mind that any reputable contractor will certify that your insulation was installed as specified.)

For more information on our attic insulation finance plan, call this toll-free number: 800-972-5782.

Act now, while you still remember the bitter cold of this past winter, and what it cost you.

You pay for what you waste.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

What a welcome sight!

We're talking about the new gates installed at the Grass Lake Rd. crossing of the Soo Line Railroad.

It was a terrific idea—right on track. In fact, we hope they will do the same for at least the Rt. 173 and North Ave. crossing.

DON'T MISS the fun-filled weekend coming up, this Friday through Monday, at Bernie's Corner, Rt. 83 and North Ave. (Check the ad elsewhere in this issue for details.)

We would like to welcome Sharon Teaters to the Antioch business district. Sharon is the new owner of Little Gallery, Inc., 943 Main St. She is planning to add a new line of crafts after this Friday.

"THANKS FOR the memory, Bernie."

That must have been what Shirley Gutowski was saying last Saturday at the state Fire Chiefs Convention at the Arlington Park Hilton, also attended by Tod and Carol Maplethorpe.

The Gutowskis had a special treat: they saw Bob Hope, who was a guest at the hotel. Maybe he wanted to give an early birthday greeting - Shirley will be celebrating next Monday.

BARBARA MADDEN is moving to Sun City, Arizona! A retired school and voice teacher, she has lived in Antioch for 36 years.

Among her many friends who gave farewell dinners were Dr. and Mrs. W. Petty, Mr. and Mrs. R. Berg, Helen Kopriva, Ellen Tossey and many friends and retired school teachers.

Barbara was an active member of the Antioch Woman's Club and St. Peter's Women's Club.

We wish her well and much happiness in her new home.

BEST WISHES to some of Antioch's newest parents! John Patrick Gaughan arrived Monday, born to Elizabeth and John of Channel Lake Shores. He weighed in at 7 lb. 15 oz.

Peter Eugene Leider was also born Monday, tipping the scales at 7 lb. 13 oz. His parents, Nancy and Peter, live in Zion. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Leider of Antioch and Mr. and Mrs. William France of Palestine, Ill.

Belated birthday greetings to Bill Carney, whose day was Monday. And we hope Ev and Elaine Oftedahl's anniversary yesterday was happy.

HAPPENINGS

THE ANTIOCH Diamond Hashers Square Dance Club is sponsoring the last dance for the season Friday, May 27. The dance will be held in the Antioch Lower Grade School gym, located at Main and Depot streets.

Due to construction, entry will be through the Depot Street entrance. Dancing starts at 8:30 p.m. with the popular caller, Dolores "Boots" Laufenburg.

All area square dancers are cordially invited to attend, as well as spectators who would like to come and watch the "whirling and twirling."

PARENTS AND community leaders who are concerned about the high incidence of alcohol and drug abuse among teens are encouraged to sponsor interested young people for attendance at the third annual Illinois Teenage Institute on Substance Abuse.

The five-day "education and peer leadership training program" is to be held at the Allerton Park 4-H Memorial Camp, Monticello, July 19-23. Participation is open to high school students who will be juniors or seniors during the 1977-78 school year. Applicants must be willing to serve as potential resource persons for his or her community following completion of the Institute program.

Applications are still being accepted. Agencies and individuals who wish to support the Institute with scholarships should write to 1035 Outer Park Drive, Suite 415, Springfield, Ill., 62704 or call toll-free 800-252-2900.

Senior Services requests aid

The Chain of Lakes Senior Services is people helping people.

Sponsored by The Chaplaincy Services, Inc., an inter-denominational, not-for-profit organization of staff and volunteers, it has an Antioch office in the basement of the United Methodist Church of Antioch, 848 Main St., 395-5161 or 395-5162.

Among the services offered is Meals on Wheels, delivering hot, nutritious meals every weekday to needy senior citizens. Volunteers provide their own transportation and any amount of time they have. Volunteers in the Telecare program make phone calls to seniors living along, checking if they are all right.

Office help is also needed to answer phones and work out transportation schedules for the mini-bus. These weekday trips include shopping, doctor appointments, laundries and Antioch financial institutions. Volunteers serve from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Also needed are people to make friendly visits to those who want and need companionship.

Donations of any amount of time or monetary gifts should be directed to the Chain of Lakes Senior Services, Antioch.

Social Security goof-up continues

The First National Bank of Antioch has received word that the 200,000-check goof-up by the Social Security Administration is not over yet.

The 200,000 Social Security checks mailed incorrectly to the home addresses of beneficiaries instead of through the direct deposit system to financial institutions in May, occurred due to a one-time special updating by the Social Security Administration. The checks were all to recipients who previously received SSA Disability Insurance Payments and are now receiving regular Social Security Payments by direct deposit.

Sources warn that the problem isn't over yet and that those who received their checks at home this month will again receive them at home in June before going automatically back to direct deposit to their banks.

L.M. Woods, president of the First National Bank of Antioch, assures his customers who were affected by this that no reapplication is necessary to resume the direct deposit program.

Hours: 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Lions' sports dinner honors ACHS athletes

Antioch High School athletes were honored Monday night when the Antioch Lions Club presented its athletic banquet at the school.

The 36th annual banquet was a fitting tribute to the boys and girls who have spent so many dedicated hours making the school's athletic program a success.

THE CAFETERIA WAS packed with students, parents, teachers and Lions Club members.

The school's most valuable athletes were singled out. They included:

SPRING 1976

Boys - track - Bob Walsh, tennis - Bob Nasenbeny, baseball - Keith Evanson.

Girls - track - Chris Walpole, softball - Kim Case.

FALL 1976

Golf - Del Gorski, cross country - Charles Paulson, football - John Kakacek.

Field Hockey - Sue Amundsen, tennis - Debbie Mondrowski.

WINTER 1976-77

Basketball - Brian Andrews, wrestling - Marvin Gibson.

Bowling - Vicky Manuel, volleyball - Marie Sundberg, basketball - Michelle Blanchette, Gymnastics - Nancy Wells.

THE SCHOOL'S SUPERINTENDENT, Warren Polley, served as chairman of the event. Gerry Vander Meer was toastmaster, the Rev. Phil Laurin gave the invocation and Don Blackman, Lions Club president, welcomed the guests.

Bill Harland, one of the school's outstanding athletes, responded as president of the "A" club.

The guest speaker was Ben Peterson, a former college wrestler from Iowa who won an Olympic gold medal in 1972 and a silver medal (for second place) in 1976.

Peterson's message turned out to be one of dedication and religion.

"We in America have been too soft," he said. "That's why the Soviet Union has been beating us. It's not an easy thing to talk about, not an easy thing to mention, but in speaking around the United States I've found that we want to be too soft."

"IF YOU WANT THAT," he said, "you don't want to be an athlete. The most important thing in my life is that, at 15, I accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as my personal savior. He has given me eternal life."

Peterson talked about his feelings after winning an Olympic championship in 1972. He mentioned the awards presentation.

"Just because I won a couple of silly matches, they played the national anthem," he said. "It still sends chills up and down my spine, but that's not the most important thing in my life. It's knowing that the Lord Jesus Christ is my personal savior."

THE SCHOOL'S ATHLETIC DIRECTOR, Ward Lear, praised the highlights of the last year:

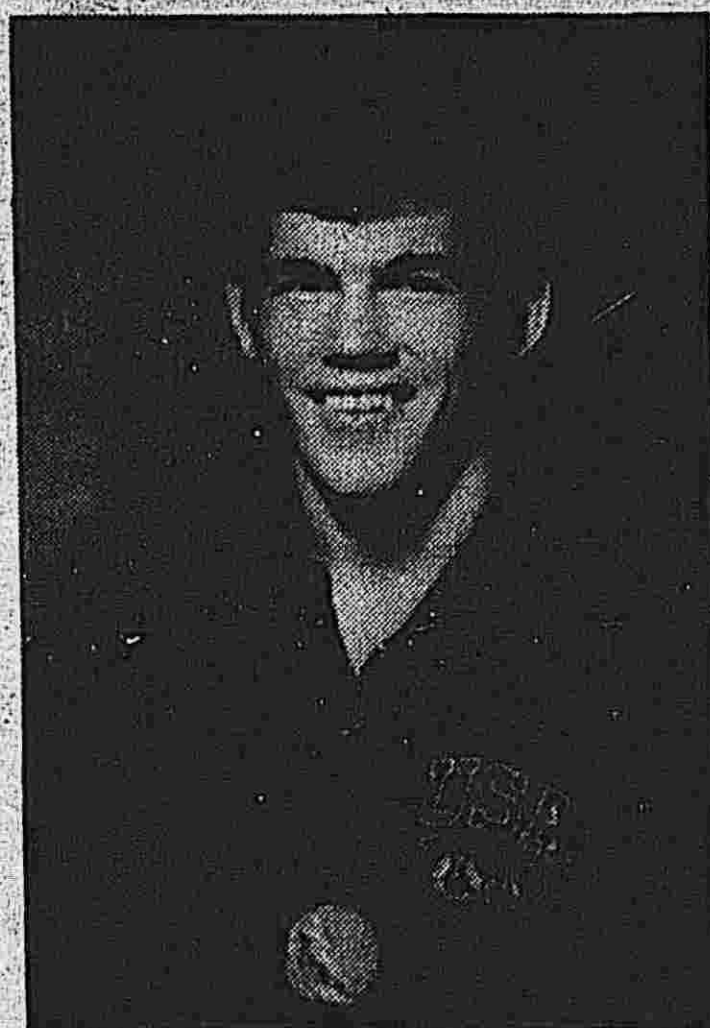

- The 1976 conference baseball championship won by the team coached by Bill Seemann.

- The 1976 golf championship won by Mark Guthrie's team.

- The fact that Ron Halpern's tennis team was the first from Antioch to qualify for the sectional tournament.

- Antioch's domination of conference track and field events. The Sequoias have won the title nine times in the last 15 years, finished second five times and third once. Gerry Sandberg has been the winning coach in recent years.

- Mr. Lear also praised the records of Roger

BEN PETERSON

Andrews' basketball team, Ted DeRousse's wrestlers and Roy Nelson's football players.

LAST YEAR, ANTIOCH won the overall championship in Northwest Suburban Conference

Mr. Lear said that a tremendous amount is added to the athletic program by the bands, color guard, pom pon squad, and the girls who serve as aides to the football, wrestling and track teams.

Homan leading race when it's rained out

Stock car racing at the Kenosha Speedway in Wilmot took a turn for damper action Saturday night.

A heavy rain shower dumped more than the required amount on the one-third mile clay oval nearly two hours before time trials were scheduled.

The late model sportsman stock cars started their heat racing with the first two 8-lap heats being won by Dave Zilmer and Scott Dahlberg.

The final heat race was on the track with Tom Homan, Antioch, leading when rain returned to cancel the remainder of the program.

A 35-lap super-modified feature will be run this coming Saturday night to make up for the action lost to the rains.

In the super modifieds, Chuck Ostergaard of Bristol finished second to Gary Dye of West Allis in a 10-lap heat race. John Tierney of Lake Villa won another heat.

6 Antioch athletes qualify for state

Six members of Antioch's fine track and field team have earned trips to this weekend's state championships at Eastern Illinois University in Charleston.

They did it by qualifying last Saturday in Lake County's super-tough district meet at Zion.

Competition at Charleston will begin Friday morning and end Saturday.

ANTIOCH'S TWO INDIVIDUAL qualifiers were Steve Pilcher, who won the district broad jump championship, and Mike Harr, who was an impressive second in the discus throw.

Pilcher leaped 21 feet 6 inches to beat out Mark Giles of Highland Park by six inches. Pilcher's previous best of 21-2 had ranked fourth in the county. Nate Lundy of North Chicago, who led the county rankings with 22-6, finished only third in the district.

HARR HURDLED THE DISCUS 159 feet 6 inches last Saturday to place second behind national high school standout Jim Lenzini of Libertyville, who hit 183 feet 5 inches.

Lenzini's best this year, 187-10, has earned him national acclaim. Harr wasn't even ranked among the top five in the county, but he beat out several competitors who were.

ANTIOCH'S COACH, Gerry Sandberg, was especially proud of his two-mile relay team, in addition to his praise for Pilcher and Harr.

The four Antioch runners, each racing a half-mile, placed second in the district, only a tenth of a second behind Deerfield's two-mile team. Deerfield was clocked in 8:06.4 and Antioch in 8:06.5.

Antioch's runners and their approximate times for the half-mile were Dan Otten 2:02, Chuck Paulson, 2:02, Mark Biel 2:04 and Bill Harland 1:58.

PRIOR TO THE DISTRICT meet, Antioch ranked fifth in the county with a best time of 8:17.6. Otten, Paulson, Biel and Harland shaved 11 seconds off that clocking.

Antioch scored 16 points to finish seventh in the 18-team district meet. North Chicago won with 58 points.

Softball tourney June 4, 5

Dug Out Park in Trevor, Wis., is now taking entries for its Class C and D Men's 12-inch slow pitch June Tournament. The dates are set for June 4 and 5.

The tourney is single elimination. Entry is $40 with sponsor trophies and $150 in traveling expense for the top two teams.

For more information, contact Tom Furlan at 414-862-9136 or 312-395-5788. Or mail entries to him at Rt. 1, Box 321, Trevor, Wis. 53179.

Randy Matson?

After a silver medal in '64 Olympics, he won the gold in '68 Olympics shot put. The Sullivan Award winner (top U.S. amateur athlete) set world shot record, 71-5 1/2, in 1967. He now heads group ticket sales, athletic promotions at his alma mater, Texas A&M.

Varsity softball looks to next year

The Antioch girls varsity softball team began the final week of the season with a 16-4 victory over Wauconda. Top hitters for Antioch were Cathy Miller 4-4, Karen Kirschke 3-4 and Sandy Kessler 3-3. The winning pitcher was Pam Parker. On Wednesday the game was at Cary Grove with Cary Grove winning, 15-13. Cathy Miller was again the top hitter with 3-5 followed by Kim Plotz who was 2-2.

The final day of the season featured a home game with Woodstock. The game was close with Antioch holding a 2-1 lead until late in the game when Woodstock scored 3 times in both the sixth and seventh innings. Kathy Murphy pitched a fine game for the losing Sequoits whose inability to supply much offense was the deciding factor in the game. Bonnie Pottala was 2 for 3 and Karen Kirschke and Cathy Miller supplied solid defensive performances.

The loss gave the girls a lackluster 3-8 record in conference games and 3-14 overall. The last two weeks of the season the girls had improved enough so they were in all five games and with a few breaks could have won all of them. The future looks bright because the junior varsity were conference champs and two of the varsity's top hitters, junior Heide Kapischke, batting .533 and sophomore Lisa Haling who batted .421, will be back next year.

World's drag racing stars to compete

The 21st annual "Olympics of Drag Racing" get underway Saturday (8 p.m.) Sunday (2 p.m.) and Memorial Day (2 p.m.) at the Great Lakes Dragaway in Union Grove, Wis.

More than 400 drivers from 37 states and three foreign countries have entered the drag racing classic.

Gary Beck of Canada and Olive Skilton of London, England, are the nitro-fuel dragster national titleholders from their respective countries.

Gordon Bonin of Nova Scotia is the 1976 national champion in the "Funny Car" ranks in his country.

BONIN'S TOUGHEST COMPETITION is expected from the 1976 U.S. champion, Don "Snake" Prudhomme of California, and fellow Californians Tom "Mongoose" McEwen, "TV" Tommy Ivo and Gary Bergin.

A half dozen jet-powered dragsters and wheelstanders, with drivers like Bill "Maverick" Golden of Los Angeles (Little Red Wagon) and Bob Perry, Tucson, Ariz. (Hell on Wheels Tank) are also on the huge program.

Musgrave steals 'Tom Jones Night'

On "Meet Tom Jones Night" Sunday at the Waukegan Speedway it was Ted Musgrave who came home the big winner.

Musgrave started the night off as the night's fastest qualifier. Then Musgrave took the lead from Bob McKay coming out of turn 4 on lap 7 and went on to win his second feature of the season in record time.

Roy Acuff won the trophy dash; however, Acuff tangled with Abel Avilla's Vega going up the homestretch wall in the first heat. Avilla was uninjured, but his car was retired for the evening. Acuff came back to finish 5th in the feature.

Jones won the race following a tangle between Musgrave and John Baumeister, which resulted in Musgrave ending up in the infield.

Musgrave picked up the win in the other late model heat.

The Mini-Indy cars were running in a warm-up session for their big show coming up next Monday night at the Speedway. Larry Hillerud was the fastest qualifier. Heat wins went to Denny McKay and Phil Gilardi.

As part of "Tom Jones Night," Jones signed autographs and passed out buttons with his picture on them during intermission.

ABC's of Travel

By BARB CORBIN

WELCOME TRAVELER - The pulse of today's travel market can be summed up in one phrase: "Get me there as cheaply as possible, and let me do my own thing."

For some people, travel means a jet flight to some long-dreamed-of land and a rented car waiting at the airport. For others it means a group tour, offering the advantages of money-saving land arrangements and opportunities for new friendships.

Still others opt for the pleasant other-worldliness of a cruise ship, or the new "special-interest" tours built around such hobbies and passions as cooking, wine-tasting, music, skiing, language study, etcetera.

Brochures, ads, what have you; do not tell you where to go, what to buy, how to pack or to say "Where is a good hotel?" in eight languages.

They offer instead the modest suggestion of a world waiting to be explored, a world as diverse and interesting as the 4 billion people who live in it.

Consider these as a menu, something to whet your appetite, give you a sense of various countries and islands, their prices and attractions. Then consult the person who can give you all the information you need for planning a trip or vacation - your travel agent.

He can save you hundreds of dollars, make as few or as many arrangements as you wish, and suggest an itinerary that matches your interests and requirements.

By the way, I think some of you will be amazed at the number of services a travel agent can perform in this age of computers and telecommunications. Agents' income comes from commissions paid by carriers, hotels, cruise lines, railroads, NOT from fees added onto customers' bills.

Maybe the public still doesn't understand! OUR SERVICE IS FREE. Even if you just want some general information of a roadmap, we can be of service.

I know many of you will be making summer vacations with the family in the months ahead, so let me close by saying simply - bon voyage.
